

Notation 1

Transition Associate Provost for Undergraduate Education (APUE) to Dean of Undergraduate Studies (DUS), moving student support functions from Enrollment Services (Student Academic Services, Student Achievement, and the Student Success Center) to this unit. SACS Liaison and reporting functions previously assigned to the APUE will be moved to the new Associate Provost for Planning & Assessment.

Notation 2

The Director of the Lloyd International Honors College is supervised on a daily basis by the Vice Provost, but will interact directly with the Provost on strategic program issues. It is anticipated that this position will eventually be elevated to a deanship reporting directly to the Provost.

Notation 3

New Associate Provost for Planning and Assessment position with the following responsibilities:

- University Planning
- Academic Assessment
- Institutional Research
- GA Liaison for programs
- AAF Annual Report
- SACS Liaison
- With Dean of Undergraduate Studies, liaison to GEC and Undergraduate Curriculum Committee
- With Dean of the Graduate School, liaison to Graduate Studies Committee
- Possible other new or transferred functions

Notation 4

The University Registrar and the Directors of the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid will form a new Enrollment Service organization, with the head of each office reporting to the Vice Provost.
