INFORMATION ITEMS:

Report on Private Giving to The University of North Carolina at Greensboro and its Affiliated Organizations, July 1, 2009 – September 30, 2009

Patricia W. Stewart, Vice Chancellor for University Advancement, reported on private giving to The University of North Carolina at Greensboro and its affiliated organizations. Donors whose scholarships were underwater were recently asked to make current contributions so that the scholarships could be awarded. About 25% of these donors answered this call. The actual dollar impact of underwater scholarships will be presented at the full board meeting. Additional information is needed for Attachment A. It will be revised for presentation to the full board.

SECC Campaign

Patricia W. Stewart, Vice Chancellor for University Advancement, reported that $220,134 has been raised to date from faculty, staff, and retirees. Participation is down some, at 35%. There are a few weeks left in the campaign.

CLOSED SESSION

Kate Barrett made a motion that the meeting go into closed session to avoid premature disclosure of honors or awards. The motion was seconded by Bill Pratt and passed. Carolyn Ferree called the meeting to closed session.

A move was made, seconded, and passed to return to open session. With no other business to be brought before the Board, Ferree adjourned the meeting at 11:17 a.m.
