INFORMATION ITEM:  Information Systems Audit to be Conducted by Office of the State Auditor

BACKGROUND INFORMATION:

On a periodic basis, the Office of the State Auditor assesses the security and integrity of information technology systems of state agencies, the University of North Carolina, and community colleges. The most recent audit review of the information systems of The University of North Carolina at Greensboro was completed in December of 2004. The Office of the State Auditor has scheduled an examination of the University’s information systems beginning in January of 2010.
