WHEREAS, achieving compliance with SACS Core Requirements and Comprehensive Standards relating to the University’s mission requires minor revisions to the current UNCG Vision and Mission Statement, which was approved by the Chancellor on December 15, 2008, and by the UNC Board of Governors on November 13, 2009, and

WHEREAS, the current Vision and Mission Statement does not specifically state that UNCG offers doctoral programs, online and off-campus courses, or programs for non-degree-seeking students and, therefore, does not meet the SACS requirement that it be comprehensive, and

WHEREAS, the committee that developed the current UNCG Vision and Mission Statement was asked to propose a revised version of this statement to correct these omissions, therefore

BE IT RESOLVED, that the following revisions be accepted and endorsed by the Faculty Senate:

Proposed UNCG Vision and Mission Statement

The University of North Carolina at Greensboro will redefine the public research university for the 21st century as an inclusive, collaborative, and responsive institution making a difference in the lives of students and the communities it serves.

UNCG is a . . .

A learner-centered, accessible, and inclusive community fostering intellectual inquiry to prepare students for meaningful lives and engaged citizenship;

An institution offering classes on campus, off campus, and online for degree-seeking students and life-long learners;

A doctorate-granting research university where collaborative scholarship and creative activity enhance quality of life across the life-span;

A source of innovation and leadership meeting social, economic, and environmental challenges in the Piedmont Triad, North Carolina, and beyond; and
A global university integrating intercultural and international experiences and perspectives into learning, discovery, and service.
