Action Item

UAC – 5 Approve the naming amount for the Brown Theatre

Background Information

Committee members will receive information regarding a proposal for a donation amount in exchange for the naming rights of the UNCG Brown Building Theatre. The Brown Building Theatre was renovated and reopened in January 2008. The Theatre can accommodate 140 people during performances. The theater is also home to weekly student workshops, where students gather to participate and view abbreviated performances. The Brown Building Theatre is located on the first floor of the Brown Building, 402 Tate Street.

UAC 5.1 – Naming Amount Proposal

Recommended Action

That the Board of Trustees of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro approve the gift amount of $500,000 in exchange for the Donor’s naming rights.

Janis I. Zink
Vice Chancellor for University Advancement